HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as indigestion, dyspepsia, nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing so closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded. Is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Excess, &c.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.
It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; one day they are complaining, the next they feel well—another sick, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail. Thousands of certificates have been published in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes: Philadelphia, March 18, 1767.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as inappropriate to the spirit, and have in all cases declined; but with a clear conviction of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL.
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.
Yours truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

CAUTION.
Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

CHRISTIAN MONUMENT.

Behold the monument erect,
Complete, and bearing no defect;
Without a spot, forever pure,
It stands, and ever shall, secure.

'Tis God's own pillar rising high:
Its cap-stone reaches to the sky;
Faith is the great foundation-stone,
Resting on GRACE, and that alone.

Well built on Faith stands Virtue fair,
A Christian grace of value rare,
O, Virtue!—daughter of the skies!
From thee must goodly Knowledge rise.

Placed firm, there next appears a grace,
Knowledge by it is kept in place;
Much more secure the column's made,
When Temperance is on Knowledge laid:

And now, cemented well, appears,
A beauteous grace, offspring of tears,
Patience—of perfect loveliness,
Whose fruitage is pure Godliness.

On Godliness, a perfect base,
Is laid another precious grace,
Whose worth is greater far than gold,
Brotherly Kindness now behold.

Then comes the best, the crowning grace,
Well fills the last remaining place,
On Brotherly Kindness ever rest
Charity—grace by far the best.

And now complete, the cap-stone on,
This work shall last when time has gone,
For though the earth away shall pass,
God's truth forevermore shall last.

The New Middle States.

The Atlantic Almanac, for 1869, contains an article on that part of our Republic drained by the Mississippi, which on many accounts is worthy of attention, as connected with the future prospects of increase and wealth of the whole country. Not very long after the settlement of Boston, persons employed to explore the country they had done so, as far as they believed would ever be necessary, which was about seven miles west of the colleges at Cambridge. This to them was the beginning of the great West. Settlements afterwards made in the valley of the Connecticut removed the limit a little further. The Indian wars and the Revolution carried it to the Ohio, in our latitude, and to the Mohawk, further north; then it soon advanced to the Mississippi, and still further away beyond the Missouri, and the Mexican war and the discovery of gold in California removed the boundary of our great West to the Pacific Ocean. The State in the valleys watered by the Mississippi and its tributaries may, therefore, now be justly termed our "Middle States."

The Atlantic seaboard of the United States extends about 2,500 miles, and the Mississippi and its tributaries open up an inland navigation of 30,000 miles, upon the bosom of which is now floating an amount of commerce three times as great in value as the whole foreign commerce of the country. In former times the trade with foreign ports was looked upon as our most important interest. It is now dwarfed by the transportation and handling of domestic produce for domestic markets. In 1860, the entire produce of the United States was 1,900,000. Its exports were less than one-fifth of this amount, leaving four-fifths to be exchanged between the States. It has been said that at the present time, not more than one fifteenth of the business of New York city is based upon foreign commerce.

The Mississippi drains 1,685,000 square miles, which is more than half the number of square miles in the whole United States, and the surface contains 768,000,000 acres of the finest land in the world. It has space for one hundred and fifty States of the size of Massachusetts, and were its population in the same proportion, it would contain more than five times the present population of the whole United States. At this time not more than one acre in five is under cultivation, and the vast resources of coal and minerals have hardly begun to be fairly developed. The fourteen States which comprise this region claim (though this is without reason) that they pay more than one-half the taxes, and that they work more than half the improved land, and have a majority of the population of the United States. The value of the annual commerce of the Mississippi is estimated at $2,000,000,000, and the Agricultural Bureau, basing its calculations upon past results, estimates that in the year 1900 the cereal products of the West will amount to more than 3,000,000,000 bushels.

The values of crops, as well as of the productions of the mine and forest, depend mainly on facilities for transportation, either natural or artificial. The Mississippi is but one of the outlets of the vast region through which it passes. The great lakes open a wide belt of the country, and canals and railroads bring almost every farm within easy distance of natural navigation. The estimated cost of conveying a ton of merchandise a mile on the ocean, is from half a cent to one and a half cents; on the lakes, two cents; on the river, two and three-fourths cents; on the canals two to five cents; and on the railroads, from three cents to thirteen and a half cents. Of the amount of grain received at Chicago, seventy-five per cent. comes by railway; but from that city only ten per cent. is sent east by rail, whilst ninety per ct. is sent by the lakes. The merchants, manufacturers and consumers of the east have an interest in reducing the cost of transportation to the lowest possible point, and this can most easily be effected by improving the water communications. Cheap transportation is a vital necessity to our whole country, and if it is secured, the resources and fertile regions even further west, will be developed as surely as time endures, and more rapidly than we can at present imagine.

Pleasant Homes.

Parents, strive to make your homes pleasant and attractive! If you would have your children grow up pure, healthy and beautiful, attempt not to destroy their love for beautiful things, and for healthy recreation. Do not labor with such cold, rigid, self-denying economy to hoard up money to bestow upon them at your death, rather devote a portion of your surplus income to embellishing and beautifying your dwellings and to furnish your girls and boys with the means of home enjoyment. Introduce into your family circle innocent amusements, and above all, yourselves join and assist the young in their recreations and plans for social diversion. Teach them that most beautiful and soul inspiring accomplishment music; allow them to mingle in the graceful and health giving dance, to romp, laugh and be merry.

Many parents will crush with a frown every attempt at hilarity on the part of their children; they will banish all amusement and gayety from the family circle, and cause a shade of gloom to settle over their homes. What is the course of the children of such parents? To escape from the oppressive atmosphere of home becomes the governing motive of all their actions. When away from the immediate care of their parents they will secretly go to places which they are forbidden to visit, and mingle with children with whom they have been told not to associate; then they will immediately become more hardened, and plunge deeper and deeper into the sea of forbidden pleasures, and resort to falsehood to shield themselves from detection; and after they have taken this step their downward course is straight and rapid. They frequent drinking shops, smoke and swear, associate with fast young men, soon become "fast" themselves, and at last cause the hoary heads of their parents to bow in sorrow.

Are not such parents in a measure, responsible for the sins of their children? The young will have enjoyment, and if they cannot find it at home they will seek it elsewhere in doubtful places and in doubtful company. They are full of vitality and gayety; they have an ungovernable desire for amusement and social intercourse, and that desire must be gratified, legitimately it may be, or illegitimately. Attempt to suppress it and you will ruin your children; direct it in the proper channel, and you will cause them to grow up happy and contented into the best and noblest of men and women.

One half of the depraved and abandoned men and women of this country have been made what they are by their parents. Through ignorance and superstition they have been driven from their homes, which to them should be the most attractive places on earth, to seek the street "by the forbidden paths," for that recreation which is essential to their existence.

You who have children to train up, think of this! Devote a portion of your time and money to gratifying their love for social amusement. If you do not get rich quite as fast, if you, perchance, do not die a millionaire, what matters it? You will be compensated a hundred fold for the pecuniary loss by the joy and pleasure you will experience by seeing your children grow up noble and virtuous, honored and respected by those around them.—DUNNELL.

THE CHIMNEY CORNER.—The old chimney corner. It is endeared to the heart from the earliest recollections. What dreams have been dreamed there. What stories told there! What bright hours passed! It was a place to soberly think in, a place to weep in, to laugh in, and much the cosiest place in the house to rest in. It was there that dear grandmamma used to sit at her knitting warming her poor old rheumatic back against the wall; where grandpa used to fall asleep over his newspaper; where mamma used to place her spinning wheel and papa used to sit there too, and read in the great arm chair.

It was there you used to read fairy tales in your childhood, folded so snug, warm, and easy in its great warm lap, while the wind of a winter's night was whistling without. Your favorite plum cake was never so sweet as when eaten there, and the stories you read by the sitting room fireside were never half so fascinating as those read in the chimney corner.

If you were sad, you went there to cry. If you were merry, you with your brothers and sisters, nestled there to have a right merry time. Even puss and the house dog loved the chimney corner.

Look back to the old house, where every room, every nook, is so full of pleasant recollections—the family sitting-room where so many happy meetings, your own chamber, with its little window, where the sun came peeping in at morn; mother's sitting room, still sacred with her presence. But after all, the brightest memories cluster about that chimney corner.

You long to be folded in its faithful bosom again as you were in childhood, and have a good cry over all those happy times.

It is desolate now. The bright faces that clustered there of yore will never come back again. Black and dingy are the loved walls, and the smoke from the kitchen fire never makes them warm any more. But still memory sets up some of the holiest and most beautiful statutes of her carving in that old chimney corner.

"Waiting for Something to Turn Up."

It is a common thing to hear hardy, muscular and indolent young men exclaim: "I wish I had capital." These individuals are waiting for something to "turn up," whereby they can step into the possession of a future without even trying to earn it. They expect some gracious breeze from heaven to blow into their pockets the fortune which they ought then to be striving to gain by honest labor. With such characters labor is disgraceful. Poverty is bad enough but they had rather be poor and save their alaba

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Wednesday morning, Jan. 27, 1869.

WM. LEWIS, HUGH LINDSAY, } EDITORS.

The "Globe" has the largest number of readers of any other paper published in the county. Advertisers should remember this.

☞Gen. Grant's Cabinet is still a mystery. He's sharp. Hope he'll remember Pennsylvania.

☞Advertising Agents and others will please remember that our published rates of advertising are our lowest rates, net.

☞Hon. D. J. Morrell gave an entertainment in Washington on Thursday evening last in honor of Mr. Scott, at which Mr. Scott and the whole Pennsylvania delegation were present.

☞Hon. Asa Packer, of Clinton county, and Gen. Geo. W. Cass, and Hon. Wilson McCandless of Pittsburg, are prominent candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor. Mr. Clymer declines being a candidate.

☞The Deseret News says the work on the Union Pacific railroad is completed to within sixty miles of Salt Lake City. The Mormons are building the road through the Salt Lake country, and the company has the confidence of the entire population.

SENATORIAL.—Last Tuesday was a Senatorial field day. Pennsylvania elected Hon. John Scott; New York, Hon. Reuben E. Fenton; Maine Hon. Hannibal Hamlin; Massachusetts, Hon. Charles Sumner; Missouri, Carl Schurz; Delaware, Hon. Thomas F. Bayard; Indiana, Hon. William Cumback, and Minnesota, Hon. Alexander Ramsey.

☞The Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society met in Harrisburg last Wednesday, and elected Amos E. Kapp, of Northumberland, President. There was quite a large attendance, over one hundred and thirty gentlemen taking part. It was resolved to hold a grand State agricultural convention in Harrisburg, on the third Wednesday in March next, to which all county and other agricultural societies are invited to send delegates.

☞Ex-Secretary of War, Edwin M. Stanton, on being asked by a friend if he would accept a Cabinet position under Gen. Grant, made, according to a correspondent of the Philadelphia Post, the following reply: "I am not a candidate for any office, nor will I accept any position in the gift of the Government. I do not want a place in the Cabinet, and I do not want a foreign mission. I long since announced my purpose to retire to private life. This I have done, and when I say I will not get into public life again I mean it. My intention is not for to-day, but for all the time. I shall never again hold public office." This disposes of one name which has been prominent on almost every Cabinet slate for the last three months.

☞The Annual State Convention of delegates representing the Grand Army of the Republic, met at West Chester last week and made choice of Oliver S. Bosbyshell as Grand Commander, for the State for the ensuing year. Geo. W. Grant, of Reading, was chosen a member of the Council of Administration. The following delegates were elected to the National Convention, which will assemble at Cincinnati on the 18th of May next. John F. Hartranft, at large; together with W. W. Hammersly, L. Wagner, H. S. Thomas, A. L. Pearson, W. L. Woodcock, S. M. Hoyt, A. R. Calhoun, H. Reeder, J. W. Geary, Charles Albright, and J. P. S. Gobin.

Election of Mr. Scott.

On Tuesday of last week the Legislature went into an election for United States Senator. The first vote resulted in giving Mr. Scott every Union Republican vote and of course he was declared elected. W. A. Wallace, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee was the opposing candidate and received the votes of the Democratic Senators and Representatives. Mr. Wallace was born in this place, is a Senator, and citizen of Clearfield. A large number of our citizens and friends of Mr. Scott from the county were present at Harrisburg to witness the election—they all returned home satisfied with the honor conferred upon the county.

☞A correspondent of the New York Times furnishes an important fact in the career of General Grant—that during the Vicksburg campaign the hostility to him at Washington was so great that his enemies obtained an order directing General Banks, then at Port Hudson, to take command of Grant's army. Banks refused, and was censured for disobedience of orders, and while the correspondence was continued Vicksburg was taken. The most singular part of the affair is that Grant knew nothing of it till within the last month. Banks seems to have disclosed this chapter of the secret history of the war. Grant now knows that while he thought he was merely capturing Pemberton he was really routing more powerful enemies in Washington. It was a double victory, and one in which the nation has reason to rejoice.

ALLEGED CORRUPTION.—We had hoped to hear no accusations of corruption against our present Legislature, but ere the session has fairly commenced we find Republican journals in every quarter "pitching in" at a lively rate against the "incorruptible" legislators. The theme of contention is in the pasting and folding department. The House of Representatives has passed a resolution increasing the number of officers in the House to twenty-seven additional. The former number was 34—adding 27, we have 61 officers in the House—that is one officer for every Republican Representative. The sum of $36,600 will be required to pay these "officers," as none will get less salary than $600. For this work of pasting and folding that these "officers" will in all get $36,600, a responsible party in Lancaster agreed to perform for $7,000. But this great saving is squandered by our Representatives, who must bow the knee to their "officers." The query is can our legislators afford to be so "economical" and do themselves credit? We think not, for the tax-payers have an interest in all that is done with their money, and let them but know that it is used by the members to pay "officers" chosen by themselves, and the people will undertake to "officer" the members themselves. We hope the House will reconsider what it has done, and do better in the future. If there is any truth in the assertion that it requires sixty-one "officers," to paste and fold, then, for economy's sake, dispense with so many copies of the Record, and other documents. We think their constituents will readily agree to dispense with their documents, if it would save their tax money.

P. S.—Since writing the above, we have read the debate on the bill in the House, perused the comments of Republican and Democratic journals and we must confess that things are so much "curfluncxed" that to one like us, outside of the "ring" at Harrisburg, it is impossible to make head or tail out of them. We hope the "ring" will heed their own consciences, and if they are right, why then as Sumner said to Stanton "stick;" but if they are wrong, let them "take it back," like men.

☞The Pittsburgh Gazette publishes an editorial in defence of our State Legislature in regard to its alleged extravagance, in refusing to accept an offer to contract for the pasting and folding of the two Houses for $9,000. It says it is true that the caucuses rejected the proposition, as it is not competent for either House to enter into a contract until after its organization, but it is not true that the pasting and folding ever cost $50,000. Under the operation of the present law the total cost of pasting and folding is $11,800. It further says that there never was a contractor for the State who did not come in after his contract was out, with a poor mouth, asking for extra pay, and therefore there is no evidence that it would not, in the end cost more than the pasting and folding will now cost under the law of 1868. It is also to be taken into account that this law of 1868 reduced the pay of all the employees of the two Houses, and will if let alone, work a saving of many thousands to the State.

☞Gen. Grant furnishes another evidence of his good sense by disapproving of the proposed Inauguration Ball, and expressing the hope that it will be dispensed with. He has written the following letter to the Committee on the subject:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES,
WASHINGTON, D C., Jan. 20, 1869.

THOMAS L. TULLOCK, Esq., Secretary, &c.—DEAR SIR: Understanding that the Committee, of which you are Secretary, meet this evening for the purpose of arranging for the inauguration ball, I venture to drop you a line to say that if any choice is left to me I would be pleased to see it dispensed with. I do not wish to disarrange any plans made by my friends in the matter of ceremonies attending the inauguration, but in this matter it will be agreeable to me if your Committee should agree that the ball is unnecessary.

With great respect, your obedient servant. U. S. GRANT, General.

☞The Report of the Department of Agriculture at Washington for November and December is out, for a copy of which our thanks are due to Commissioner Capron. It shows the total corn crop of the United States in 1868, excluding the Pacific States which are unsuited to the production of corn, to be 905,178,000 bushels, being an increase of 137,000,000 bushels over the year before. Pennsylvania is set down as having raised 31,979,000 bushels. The Southern States all are put down at unusually large figures, namely, Mississippi over thirty-fie millions, Alabama over thirty-one millions, Georgia over twenty seven millions, &c. Illinois is the largest corn producing State, her crop amounting to 134,363,000 bushels; Indiana comes next with 90,832,000; and Ohio with 74,040,000.

GIRARD WILL CASE.—For many years a suit has been pending against the city of Philadelphia, for the property of the late Stephen Girard—amounting to several millions of dollars. The property included the Girard College for orphans. On Monday a week last the case was brought to an end, it being decided by the United States Supreme Court in favor of the city of Philadelphia.

National and State Legislatures.

CONGRESS.

Monday—In the Senate a memorial was presented by the President setting forth that great frauds had been committed at the late elections, and praying for such amendments to the naturalization laws as will tend to prevent such frauds in the future. A bill was passed to amend the act prescribing the mode of obtaining evidence in cases of contested elections. A bill was introduced punishing the collection of taxes on passengers by railroads. Adjourned.

In the House a memorial was presented asking the interposition of the United States with Prussia for indemnification for violation of a contract with J. Hanson, in matter of Holstein ship canal. Referred to Committee on Foreign Affairs. Under the call for bills the following were introduced, read twice, and appropriately referred: One providing for the issue of United States bonds, retiring United States notes, and for a free system of national banking; one allowing defendants in criminal cases to testify; one to prevent the loan of money on United States legal tender notes as collateral security; one prohibiting banks of issue from paying interest on deposits except on specified time; one to admit Mississippi to representation in Congress; one for the abolition of the franking privilege. A resolution was adopted against giving subsidies in bonds or money to railroads or other corporations, and setting forth that the country's resources should be applied to relieve the burdens of taxation. The resolution that grants of public lands to corporations should be discontinued, and that all such lands should be held to secure homesteads to actual settlers, was laid on the table. The Indian appropriation bill was made the special order for Monday next. The House then went into committee of the whole on the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation bill, and at 5 p. m. adjourned.

Tuesday—In the Senate the President's reply to the inquiry regarding the legal authority upon which he issued his amnesty proclamation was read. A resolution was adopted calling on the President for information regarding the fishing grounds in the North Pacific Ocean, opened to the United States by the Alaska treaty. Among the bills referred was one amendatory of the act for the protection of rights of settlers on public lands; one relating to national bank securities, and one to complete and perfect railroad and telegraphic communication with the Pacific Ocean. A joint resolution, as an amendment to the Constitution, declaring that all persons are entitled to the franchise, was laid on the table. The copper bill was taken up and passed.

In the House a resolution was rescinded calling on the Adjutant General of the army for information respecting troops serving in Texas, Virginia and Mississippi. The bill to preserve the purity of elections in the Territories was passed, as was also Senate concurrent resolution requiring joint committee to revise and fix pay of officers of both Houses. Senate substitute for House bill amendatory of an act relating to habens corpus, was agreed to. Senate bill granting land and right of way to the Denver Pacific Railroad and Telegraph Company gave rise to considerable debate.

Wednesday—In the Senate the President sent in a remonstrance against proposed amendment to bankrupt law. Among the petitions presented was one praying for a reduction of the tax on sales of liquors; one praying for legislation modifying existing internal revenue laws. A bill was introduced to extend the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims to claims of loyal citizens of the United States. A bill to provide for the reduction of the military of the United States and for other purposes. Referred to Committee on Military affairs. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—A bill to strengthen the public credit, and relating to contracts for the payment of coin, was referred to Ways and Means Committee. A bill to restrict and regulate the franking privilige was passed, as was also a bill for the removal of political disabilities of a large number of persons in the South. A resolution was adopted to appoint a select committee of seven to inquire and report as to legislation necessary to provide for taking ninth census. Adjourned.

Thursday—In the Senate a petition praying for a constitutional amendment securing equal suffrage, and one praying for an extension of the eight hour law to other than Government employes, were presented. A resolution requesting the President to furnish report of Major General Harney was adopted, as was also a resolution relative to the transportation of convicted prisoners. The bill to punish the collection of illegal taxes on passengers was then taken up and discussed, but when the morning hour expired the Senate resumed the reconsideration of the bill to promote commerce among the States, &c. A bill prohibiting secret sales of gold was referred to Committee on Finance. A bill was reported from Committee on Finance to amend the national currency act. Adjourned.

In the House a bill was passed authorizing and directing the Secretary of the Navy, with certain restrictions, to appoint midshipmen to the Naval Academy, on or before the 4th of March next. A bill regulating the manner of applying to Congress for the removal of political disabilities was referred to the Committee on Reconstruction. A resolution that G. W. Anderson is not entitled to a seat from the Ninth Congressional district of Missouri was decided in the negative. Adjourned.

Saturday—In the Senate a joint resolution was passed donating condemned cannon to the Lincoln Monument at Springfield, Ill. The currency bill will be called up on Monday, and the suffrage amendment on Thursday. A joint resolution was passed respecting the States of Texas, Virginia and Mississippi, removing from office any persons who can not take the oath of office. Eulogies were delivered on Representative Hinds. Adjourned.

In the House Mr. Boutwell's Constitutional amendment in regard to suffrage was taken up and discussed. Adjourned.

LEGISLATURE.

Monday.—The Senate was not in session.

In the House the Governor's invitation to be present at dedication of Monument in honor of Mexican Soldiers was accepted. A motion to authorize the Speaker and Clerk to appoint twenty-seven additional officers of the House was passed after being amended. A number of bills were introduced and referred. Adjourned.

Tuesday.—In the Senate among the bills read in place was one limiting the lien of the debts of decedents upon real estate in Philadelphia; one to divide the Twentieth ward of that city; and also one to encourage the building of lateral railroads and promote the manufacturing interests of the State. The Senate went over to the House to count the election returns for Auditor General and Surveyor General. Appropriate speeches were made on the life and services of the late D. A. Finney. An afternoon session was held, at which Hon. John Scott received 17 votes for United States Senator; Wallace 13, and Clymer 1. Adjourned.

In the House a resolution was adopted requesting the Auditor General to inform the House of the amount of tax due the State from each county to January 1, 1869; one urging Congress to adopt amendments to the Federal Constitution, giving the elective franchise to all citizens without regard to race or color. The members of the Senate being present, the votes for Auditor and Surveyor General were counted. An afternoon session was held, at which Hon. John Scott received 61 votes for United States Senator, against 38 votes for Hon. Wm. A. Wallace. Adjourned.

Wednesday.—In the Senate a resolution was adopted to destroy the unavailable funds in the State Treasury. A number of private bills were presented. Adjourned.

In the House among the bills reported favorably from committees was one enabling Huntingdon county to borrow money. A joint resolution urging Congress not to purchase any telegraph lines was also reported favorably. Hon. John Scott was then elected United States Senator at a joint convention of the House and Senate. Adjourned.

Thursday.—In the Senate a number of bills were reported from committees. Bill read, entitled a supplement to an act to incorporate the Morrison's Cove railroad company. The committee appointed to try contested case of Hirst vs. Hare, in reference to presiding Judge of the district court of Philadelphia, reported in favor of Mr. Hare, Mr Hirst having withdrawn. Adjourned.

In the House a joint resolution was adopted to destroy the unavailable funds in the Treasury.

Friday—In the Senate there was no quorum present, and the Speaker adjourned the body till to morrow.

In the House a resolution was offered to dispense with the publication of public documents and relieving the pasters and folders, which was indefinitely postponed. A joint resolution was introduced requesting Congress to use all honorable means against the incorporation of railroad companies by the General Government. Adjourned till Tuesday.

Saturday.—Senate adjourned on account of no quorum.

A Modern Infernal Machine.

An instrument of warfare has recently been invented by an American mechanic, which, it is asserted, will prove more destructive than any weapon heretofore known. The apparatus consists of a row of twelve guns of 0 76 bore and about forty inches long, mounted on a carriage six feet wide, to be hauled by one horse. The barrels are divergent, so that at three hundred yards distant the twelve bullets sweep a line of about thirty feet, and are fixed at equal distances from each other, except in the middle where there is a space of ten inches, into which is placed a telescope, and an arrangement for adjusting the guns in taking aim. This contrivance, it is asserted, enables the operator to send a bullet through the bull's eye, at sixteen hundred yards, nine times out of ten. The tubes or barrels are loaded at the breech, and are connected by a rod attached to a crank, one turn of which opens and shuts all the breech pieces and loads the gun. They are made ready for firing by another turn of the crank. The bullet, it is stated, can be fired a distance of two thousand yards with accuracy. At a recent trial, forty-seven out of the sixty shots fired are reported to have struck a target four feet high at the distance of fifteen hundred yards. The invention weighs five hundred pounds, and is intended to be hauled by one horse and worked by two men, one to drive and the other to operate. The loading of the apparatus is so arranged that it can be detached in a moment; when the other part of the machine becomes perfectly useless. The cost of the entire instrument, with the horse, is reported to be $1,000. The mitrailleuse, or grape shot showerer, the deadly weapon which has attracted so much attention in France from Louis Napoleon, appears to resemble the above American invention.

Georgia Still Rebel.

In the Senate of Georgia, on Tuesday last, the following declaration and resolution were offered:

Believing Grant to be the President—not of any particular party—we, the members of the Assembly of Georgia, having the right to speak for the people, are confident that such a course on the part of the President elect will be pursued throughout the South as a harbinger of peace and the dawning of a brighter day for our common country; therefore

Resolved, That laying on the altar of our common country all the prejudices and bitter feelings engendered by the late elections, we pledge ourselves and the people to support Gen. Grant in carrying out the Constitution of the United States and the laws enacted under it.

—The resolution, after violent opposition from members still strongly imbued with the spirit of the late Rebellion, was withdrawn.

Philadelphia has not only the largest area of any city in the United States, but it is larger than Paris, and nearly equal to that of London. Philadelphia embraces 129½ square miles; New York 22. The total area of the eight other leading cities in the United States is 157 square miles.

The National Debts.

The National debts of the principal European States during the last thirty years have been the subject of interesting statistics recently published in a German paper. In 1829, it is asserted, that the public debts of France, Austria, Russia and Italy amounted to $1,000,000,000, paying about $85,000,000 a year as interest. In 1863, the debts of the same States had risen to $6,000,000,000, paying about $300,000,000 a year as interest. In Great Britain, on January 5, 1851, the national debt was about $4,035,000,000, and on March 31, 1868, was $3,985,000,000, a reduction of $50,000,000.—In Holland, the debt in 1851, was $491,807,432, and in 1868 was $387,207,565, a reduction of $104,599,867.—In Prussia, the debt in 1851 was $148,324,618, and in 1868, was 312,846,567, including $131,760,000 for railways.—Prussia has therefore, increased her debt by the amount of $164,521,949.—In France, the debt in 1851 was $1,069,200,090; and in 1868 was $2,328,707,418, besides a floating debt of $2,682,000,040. In Italy, the total debt of the smaller States now forming the dominions of Victor Emanuel was $300,000,000, and on December 21, '67, the debt of the present Kingdom of Italy was $1,355,081,632. The debt of Austria, in 1850 was $511,600,000, and in 1867 was $1,512,668,948. In Russia, the interest on the public debt in 1850 amounted to $21,372,485, and in 1868 to $52,213,907. The principal of the Russian debt is of a highly complicated character, so that a classification is almost impossible. There are also Bills of Credit issued by the government, amounting to $596,719,900, which are forced into circulation by an imperial ukase. The destruction of public credit by an unlimited issue of paper money is of long standing in Russia, and the present government has been endeavoring to remedy the financial embarrassment of the country by a steady withdrawal of the treasury notes.

THE ALABAMA TREATY.—The full convention entered into between Lord Clarendon and Reverdy Johnson for the settlement of the Alabama claims having been published, furnishes subject for much discussion in political as well as diplomatic circles.—The treaty is far from satisfactory to those who expected considerable concessions on the part of the British Ministry. It is held that the convention is a success for Lord Clarendon and not for Mr Seward. The text agreed upon contains in the first place, the same principle of limited reference to a sovereign or head of a government which, until recently, Mr. Seward persistently declined to accept.—Secondly, there is no distinction made between the claims of the United States citizens against England, known as the Alabama claims, and the counter claims of British subjects, which will be brought against the United States by British blockade runners rebel sympathizers, &c. Thirdly, should the sovereign or head of a government selected as arbiter decide that England, is not responsible to the United States for having let loose the Alabama, Shenadoah, Florida, etc., it would prevent even a consideration of the claims of American citizens, while our Government would be placed in a position whereby all counter claims of British subjects would have to be paid, thus leaving us poorer than we were before the treaty was made. It is hardly necessary to add that the convention has no chances of being ratified.

HOUSES FOR SALE and RENT.
The subscriber will receive bids for the purchase of the large
THREE-STORY BRICK BUILDING
in which he now resides, and which is also occupied as a Hardware Store, Mauhile Lodge and Chapter, and by the Young Men's Christian Association.
It is in a central business location and is a fine and substantial structure, having cut stone foundation and steps, pressed brick front, slate roof, French plate glass, solid walnut cash, best style of finish inside, with elaborate mouldings, fine glossing and graining. Gas pipes to every apartment, and whole house arranged with a view to comfort and convenience. Excellent well of water and very large cistern with both pumps on the porch.
On the building is a handsome Observatory, giving a pleasant view of the town and country for miles around.
Altogether this is the most desirable and valuable property in Huntingdon, which is now one of the most pleasant and thrifty towns on the line of the Pennsylvania Rail Road.

The election of the United States Senator from Huntingdon, has relieved that place of its insignificance. So says the Globe."—Bedford Press. If we said insignificance, we meant "insignificance." Is that significant enough for you?

A lady who had read of the extensive use of odometers, to tell how far a carriage had run, said she wished some Connecticut genius would invent an instrument to tell how far husbands had been in the evening when they just step to the post office.

Col. S. A. Black, superintendent of the middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad was recently made the recipient of a beautiful self-winding chronometer gold watch, and an exquisitely wrought gold chain, by the employees of this division.

It is universally conceded that the common spring balances are only the true index of the weight of an article when they are new, and sometimes not then. They are therefore going out of use. We think they were sprung upon the public when there was nothing better.

Apropos of the Bedford Inquirer's article in another column, we will cite the following incident: On Saturday night last, just after the crowd in front of Mr. Scott's residence had ceased their applause, a dog commenced to bark vociferously. Even the dogs bark for Scott.

An Irish court has given a gentleman one thousand dollars damages for a breach of promise by a lady with whom he had an engagement to marry. If ladies insist on the same "rights" as gentlemen they must assume the same responsibilities.

Mrs. Catherine Hoover, of Alleghany furnace, Blair county, has suffered for the past six years with a very severe pain in her foot. Of late the pain had almost entirely left the foot and ascended into her limb, when what was her surprise to find a long embroidery needle lodged there, which she from had extracted.

"Scot-ia."

The last Bedford Inquirer has the following handsome compliment to a prominent citizen of this place:

"Scotia, who has wi' Wallace bled."

The brilliant success of Hon. John Scott, of Huntingdon, in his Senatorial aspirations, has so elated the people of that ancient village, that they have given way to the most excessive manifestations of delight, some of which, it is said, appear ludicrous in the best definition of the word. An eye witness, who is our informant, says that he has never read, heard or seen anything like it.

Our narrator says the usually sober town has been drunk with excitement; that old men and maidens have vied with each other in their enthusiasm; young men and matrons have joined their most ardent zeal with the universal impulse; old men have thrown away their canes and danced with delight; matrons have lovingly seized their offspring and covered them with kisses in an exuberance of joy; young gentlemen and young ladies have been seen to embrace, rapturously, upon the door steps; boys and girls have exhausted their school hours indicting billetdoux congratulating each other on the general result; and several good feeling fellows were seen embracing lamp posts while others of their companions were feeling up for the ground; the latter, however, were exceptions.

The new born babe is now christened Scott; the boy coasting down the hill, in the midst of his delight, pulls off his bat and hurrahs for Scott; the little girl lisps ere her matin song, "I's for Stott;" the maiden, full of blushes, "mittens" the chap who does not put his trust in Scott; the merchant forgets his measurement in his anxiety for the cause of Scott; the miller stops his mill to further the interests of Scott; the Judge upon the bench "sees the point clearly" and goes for Scott; the lawyer s at the bar move the continuance of the list and are jolly over the success of Scott; the jury believe in Scott and the prisoner in the dock should go Scott free.

The doctor, it is said, coats his pills with Scott and every body takes them; the dentist has been known to stop with a half wrenched tooth, portraying the triumphs of Scott, and when the excited and afflicted patient has subsided sufficiently to realize the pain, he has been soothed with a fresh application of Scott; the book-seller has sold all the copies of Scott on hand, two or three dozen of the Scott-ish Chiefs and only failed to sell all the balance of his stock because it was labelled Scott; "Dad Lewis" has supplied the place with Scott snuff, whereby everybody has sneezed, until his prizes have become the thing of the whole town and the last one drawn has been the Hon. John Scott.

We rejoice with the good citizens of that place over their good fortune, though we cannot resist the temptation to rally them for their excessive delight, for which they will, we know, excuse us. We believe, seriously, that not only Huntingdon should be proud of the result but all Central Pennsylvania. The extremes, heretofore, have presumed that they alone were entitled to these honors while we have been left out in the cold. In the future Central Pennsylvania will take care of her own peculiar interests. *

A Serenade to Hon. John Scott.

On Saturday evening last, the services of the Silver Cornet Band were brought into requisition to serenade the U. S. Senator elect, Hon. John Scott, who had just returned home from a visit to Washington. The boys played two or three of their best tunes in their usual happy style, when Mr. Scott appeared on the portico in front of his dwelling and after complimenting the Band, turned to the crowd of citizens and favored them with a short speech. We are sorry that we have not the speech in full. He expressed his thanks to the citizens, and remarked that of all the congratulations he had received those from his own citizens and neighbors were the most appreciated by him. He referred to his election by the Legislature of the State, and said that he would do his duty as God gave him light to see his duty, and that he would advocate all the interests—industrial and commercial—of this great State. At the close of his speech the band and a number of citizens called to extend their congratulations.

A Beautiful Phenomenon.

Many citizens of this place were favored on Thursday night last with one of the most gorgeous sights in nature that it was ever their pleasure to witness. The phenomenon was the appearance of a circular rainbow round the moon, which appeared to grow smaller by degrees. The moon in the centre, and the silver-like globe around, which was circled in a golden band, and then the many colors of the rainbow, presented a sight which we never saw surpassed in beauty or sublimity. There were few clouds, but even they seemed to have imparted to them more than usual grandeur, and the stars glooming out of the canopy, appeared to enjoy the scene as well as us mortals. We can assign no cause for this phenomenon. We thought at the time that it was a harbinger of a snow storm, as is the common halo, but we were mistaken, as the weather since the occurrence has been mild and lovely in the extreme. If nature favors us with a repetition of such sights we will be highly grateful.

Coming Again.

The celebrated Peak family of bell ringers will perform in the National Hall of this place, on Saturday evening next. We have no hesitation in saying this is the best troupe traveling, and their performance being novel and entertaining, we have no doubt but they will have a full house. This troupe has the sympathy of our citizens, from a previous disappointment, and now that the troupe will perform we hear the universal remark, of "I'm going."

The following extracts from a private letter from Mr. Joseph Riegger in Germany to a friend in this place, will no doubt interest many of our readers:

SCHONWALD, Dec. 17th, 1868.

Respected Friend:—Since my departure from Huntingdon I did see a good portion of the old world, and it has changed a great deal during my absence of 34 years. Times here are pretty good, still not as good as they were before the war in the United States. The free schools here are excellent and progressing annually. The taxes are not one-fourth, compared with yours, yet you hear grumbling, and see suffering among the inhabitants here, but the principal cause of that is over population, and many are forced to migrate even with reluctance. The improvements and progress in art, sciences, morality and politics are nearly incomprehensible. Mrs. Riegger is satisfied now, and intends to remain here the balance of her days. As for myself, I will, if alive and well, return to Huntingdon next April. I feel lone some here; my old friends are either dead, killed in battle or have migrated. Few, very few of them I can find.

Provision of all kinds are abundant and very cheap. A loaf of good wheat bread, weighing four pounds costs now 9¾ cents, everything else in proportion, also clothing. Wood per cord, (oak and beech) is four dollars, the only article very high. Pianos of excellent make, substantially built, with seven octaves and also 7⅓ the first I have seen, can be bought here for $200 currency of the United States. They have all the modern improvements, and are brilliant in tone. All such instruments would cost $500 in the United States. Your brokers wanted to change me one hundred and twelve, and some one hundred and fourteen cents in exchange per dollar; well I thought it was too much, and when I came over here, I could pass it at par. They wanted me in the United States to pay eleven hundred dollars American gold, for a bill of exchange of one thousand dollars payable in Germany, but I did not agree to such a shave. I can pass American gold, at par, here.

Yours truly,
JOSEPH RIEGGER.

County Committee Meeting.

Pursuant to notice, the Union Republican County Committee met, and was called to order by the chairman, Jos. M. Stevens was chosen Secretary. On motion the election of Conferees to select delegates to the State Convention was postponed until March 1st, which motion was afterward reconsidered, and motion to postpone rejected. On motion, the Committee proceeded to elect a Senatorial delegate, with power to appoint his own Conferees, when WM. LEWIS was elected. W. H. WOODS was nominated for Representative delegate, with power to appoint his own conferees. On motion, Mr. WOODS was elected unanimously.

On motion of R. Speer, the Chairman of the Committee was authorized to call elections to be held by the Republican party, in the several townships and Boroughs in this county, to adopt or reject the Crawford County System in nominating candidates. On motion the Committee adjourned.

J. M. STEVENS, Secretary.
HUNTINGDON, Jan. 14, 1869.

How to Kill a Town.

The Dubuque Herald gives the following receipt for knocking a town stiff and dead, which we think is so applicable to our own town that we transfer it to our columns: "If you wish to kill off a town, put up no more buildings than you are obliged to occupy yourself. If you should happen to have an empty building, and any should want to rent, ask about three times its actual value. Look at every new comer, with a scowl. Turn a cold shoulder to every business man or mechanic seeking a home here among you. Go abroad for wares rather than purchase of your own merchants or manufacturers at the same prices. Refuse to advertise, so that persons at a distance will not suppose any business is being done in your town. A prompt and close observance of these rules will ruin any town in two years."

A REMARKABLE CASE.—The Altoona Vindicator is responsible for the following sensational story:

"About six months ago, a young girl named Brown came from Ashland county, Ohio, to the neighborhood of Williamsburg, in this county. It was noticed that she was subject to choking fits, and eventually it began to be rumored around that there was a living snake in her stomach. To make a long story short, we will say that only a few days ago Mr. McGahan, a constable of Woodberry township, brought the girl to our county Poor House. He stated that, while on the way, the girl was taken with several fits; that she appeared to get worse and worse, and he found it necessary to stop at Frankstown; that he distinctly saw the snake, or whatever it may be, thirtst four or five inches of its length out of the girl's mouth, on five different occasions. Several other citizens of Williamsburg and vicinity, it is said, have witnessed this mysterious thing, and are willing to testify to the truth of this statement."

Local Legislation.

Mr. Brown presented a petition from Alfred Sparr, praying for a divorce from his wife, which was referred to the committee on Divorces.

On Friday Mr. Martin presented a petition from citizens of this county, for an increase of the rate of interest to seven per cent. On the same day Mr. Brown introduced a bill to annul the marriage contract between Alfred Sparr and his wife.

Also, an act to repeal the fifth section of an act to protect wild turkeys and squirrels in this county.

Grand Revival.

The United Brethren have been holding a protracted meeting in Mapleton, since January 2d, 1869. There have been 52 souls converted, and there are some 20 yet seeking the Lord, and still they come. Brethren from a distance are cordially invited to attend. x

☞ The lecture delivered by Rev. T. De Witt Talmage last evening, on "Grumbler & Co." was highly entertaining, amusing, and replete with excellent hits.

The "Beautiful and the Useful."

Are seldom better combined than in the "American Agriculturist." This Journal is adorned with a great number of the finest illustrations, of a pleasing and instructive character, while its columns are packed full of useful information, prepared by a large force of intelligent, practical, first-class men. No man, woman, or child can peruse it without receiving benefit far beyond its cost. The subscription price is only $1.50 a year, or four copies for $5.00, which is remarkably cheap, considering the expensive character of the paper, and its real value; but a circulation reaching nearly 200,000 divides the expenses among so many, that the cost of each is very small. The first number of the 28th Annual Volume comes to us in a new and beautifully illustrated cover, and its contents are quite as choice as usual, which is saying a good deal for a journal always good. Those who subscribe now for the new volume will make a valuable investment. The publishers are ORANGE JUDD & CO., 245 Broadway, New York.

THE BOOK BUSINESS.—But few persons have any proper comprehension of how vast is the book business in this country. Take one "item," for instance, as illustrative:—Mathew Hale Smith's "Sunshine and Shadow in New York," which is the exciting work of the day, has already reached the enormous sale of 25,000 copies within thirty days. The Publishers (J. B. Burr & Co., of Hartford, Conn.,) use two tons of paper a day and run six large roller presses constantly to supply the current demand. This is doing a wholesale business with one book alone. This is a large work too, it must remembered, between seven and eight hundred pages royal octavo; and yet it is said to rival in rapidity of sale "Uncle Tom's Cabin" of old. Think of the countlessness of the small ones published. Surely ours is a reading country.

We have received the copy of another paper from Mt. Union, this county, called the "News," published by B. H. Lehman and John Dougherty. It is to be "devoted to mankind and not to party, and will be political without being partizan." Mr. Dougherty's pet scheme of a railroad from the capital of the nation to the Lakes will be fully ventilated in its columns, but whether it will longer than this desirable object is accomplished is more than we can say—even that may be a long while. But while it does live, we hope to see it improve in appearance, and receive proper support.

The publishers of Hearth and Home will present to any person who buys a copy of No. 8, bearing date Feb. 10th, with a beautiful engraving, entitled "The Pet of the Village."

We have received a copy of the "Worthy Chief," published at 37 Park Row, New York; by W. H. Gardner. As its name indicates it is a Temperance journal, and comes out on the side of prohibition. We hope it will prosper.

ENTERPRISE HEADQUARTERS.

Dessicated Cocoanut for Pies, Puddings, Cakes, etc., for sale at the cheap Grocery of Massey & Co.

New Zealand Chocolate—the genuine—for sale at Massey & Co's cheap Grocery.

A full assortment of fresh Spices, Baking Powders, Prunes, Raisins, Currants, Citron, Dried Peaches and Apples, Beans, Rice, Hominy, Barley, etc., etc., just received by Massey & Co.

Presents for January will be impartially distributed to customers on Monday next.

Another stock of fresh Groceries, etc., received at Enterprise Headquarters this week. Quick sales and small profits, and presents to customers every month in the bargain.

Massey & Co., have gained a number of new customers within a week who say they will not patronize any other store in town until they find out who are in the combination of "other business men" that has influenced the editor of the Monitor to refuse to advertise for Enterprise Headquarters.

Enterprise Headquarters pays heavier taxes, sells more Groceries, feeds more mouths, and sells at lower prices than any other store in town.

"Enterprise" presents for the month of February will be announced next week. They will be brilliant. Everybody will want them. They will not cost customers anything.

The season for papering is near at hand. Now styles for 1869 have been received at Lewis Book Store.—Purchasers will receive free of charge something of more value than the paper they purchase. Call and see new styles and select your paper early.

☞ There is no mistake about it, Plantation Bitters will ward off Fever and Ague and all kindred diseases, if used in time. No family need suffer from this distressing complaint if they will keep Plantation Bitters in the house, and use in according to directions. The most important ingredient of this medicine is Calisaya or Peruvian Bark, which is known to be the finest and purest tonic in the vegetable kingdom. The extract of this Bark is the active principle of all the good Fever and Ague Medicine prescribed by intelligent doctors. Calisaya Bark is used extensively in the manufacture of Plantation Bitters, as well as quinine, and we dare say they owe their popularity mostly to the fact. We can recommend them. 1t.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price. tf

Public Meeting.

A public meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of this place will be held in the Methodist Church on Monday evening next. An interesting programme has been arranged, including music, addresses, and reading reports of the doings of the Association during the past year. The public are cordially invited to encourage the Association by their presence that evening.

Allen's Washing Compound.

This Compound is a great labor-saver, and no family should be without it. It not only saves three-fourths the labor, but also three-fourths the time, and three-fourths the expense of washing. It also saves the wear and tear of clothes on the washboard.

LOST.—A small gold Breastpin, set with hair, was lost on the streets of Huntingdon, on Monday last. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning it to this office.

Our Gifts for JANUARY.

They Cost You Nothing.

1 Barrel XXXX Family Flour.
1 New Family Sewing Machine.
1 Violin and Box.
1 Accordeon.

If our sales during the month go above our estimate, we will increase the number of presents. We pay a license to make as many presents to our customers as we please.

Any person purchasing to the amount of 25 Cents, or over, at either LEWIS' BOOK STORE, or MASSEY & Co's Grocery, Confectionery and Variety Store, from and including Friday, the 1st, to and including the will receive a numbered card for every 25 Cents worth purchased, which will entitle the holders to as many chances as they have numbered cards, to receive one or more of the above presents.

The goods on hand consist of Books of all kinds, Fancy Articles, Musical Instruments, Perfumery, Wall Paper, Groceries of all kinds, Whitman's celebrated Confectionery, common Candies, Fruits of all kinds, Toys, Extra Family Flour, Buckwheat Flour, Corn Meal, Mince Meat, Sweet Cider, Vinegar, Coal Oil, Tubs, Buckets, Baskets, Stoneware, Brushes, Brooms, Whisks, Apples, Potatoes, etc., etc., too numerous to mention.

Our prices will be as low if not lower than elsewhere for the same goods.

Now's your time to receive a Handsome Present, Cheap.

The Enterprise will be continued, and valuable presents will be distributed the first day of every month.

Public notice will be given in all the county papers the first week in every month of the numbered cards entitled to presents.

Stamps and Printing Office business not included in the above.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

TESTIMONY of a PROMINENT PHYSICIAN.

Dr. J. T. Baker, a skillful and widely known physician of twenty years standing in Lancaster, Pa., gives his opinion of a popular household remedy, in the following letter:

LANCASTER, PA., November, 23, 1868.

DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co.—Dear Sirs: During the past eight years I have had frequent opportunities to study the effect of Mishler's Herb Bitters upon persons suffering from Dyspepsia, Loss of Nervous Energy, Sexual Weakness, Diarrhœa, &c. Remedies were prescribed by other physicians according to the Homœopathic, Allopathic and Hydropathic schools, and only a comparatively few permanent cures effected. On the other hand, I have never known the Bitters to fail producing the desired result, and I still use them, in the treatment of such complaints, with the highest success. I have no hesitation in saying that I consider Mishler's Herb Bitters the most efficacious remedy ever discovered for diseases arising from a deprdered Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels, Lungs and Heart.

Yours truly,

Gough's Apostrophe to Cold Water.

The celebrated apostrophe to water given in one of John B. Gough's temperance lectures is a gem. It is said to have originated with a Texas Baptist preacher. It is somewhat modified as used by Mr. Gough. Pouring a goblet of water and advancing towards his audience, and lifting it above his head, he said:

"Look at that, ye thirsty ones of earth! Behold it! Behold its purity! How it glitters, as if a mass of liquid gems! It is a beverage that was brewed by the hand of the Almighty himself! Not in simmering, still or smoking fires, choked with poisonous gases and surrounded by the stenches of sickening colors and rank corruption, does our Father in Heaven prepare the precious essence of life—the pure cold water; but in the green glade and grassy dell, where the deer wanders and the child loves to play; there God brews it; and down in the deep valleys, where the fountains murmur and the rills sing, and high upon the mountain tops, where the storm clouds brood and the thunders crash; and away far out on the wide sea where hurricane howls music and the big waves roll, the chorus, sweeping the march of God—there he brews it—that beverage of life—health giving water—and every where it is a thing of beauty; glimmering in the dew drop, singing in the summer rain, shining in the ice gem—till the trees all seemed turned into living jewels; spreading a golden veil over the setting sun or a white gauze around the midnight moon, sporting in the cataract, sleeping in the glaciers, dancing in the hail shower; folding its bright curtain softly about a windy world, and weaving the many colored iris, that seraph's zone of the sky, whose warp is the rain drops of earth, whose woof is the sunbeam of heaven; all checkered over with celestial flowers by the mystic hand of reflection, still always it is beautiful, that blessed life water. No poison bubbles on the brink; its foam brings no sadness or murder!

"That's very Odd."—A gentleman was recounting his travels one evening after dinner, to a friend, and commenced in this way:—

"When I was travelling in Russia, I was attacked while crossing a forest by a pack of twelve wolves; and from my postchaise window I fired my revolver and killed the first wolf, and strange to say, his companions stopped and devoured him, and then came on again to the fight. I shot another, and my postillion killed a third, both of which were devoured, and so we went on until one wolf remained; and I killed him as we were entering the town, and I observed that he was immensely fat. He, of course, had devoured all his companions."

"Dear me," said his friend, "that's very odd."

"Very odd," said the traveller; "but not nearly so odd as that which happened on the following day. I was out shooting antelopes, and fired at one as he stood on the top of a crag, and odd to say, the ball passed thro' his neck and killed another which was standing on a crag a quarter of a mile off."

"That's very odd," said the friend.

"Yes, but the odd part of the story is yet to come. The report of my rifle startled an old he-bear which happened to be up in a tree, and he fell to the ground and broke his neck and died on the spot."

"Well," said the friend, "upon my soul, that's very odd."

"Yes, odd," said the traveller, "but not so odd as the sequel of my story. A thunder storm came on and I sought refuge in a hollow tree, and to my horror, I descended into a nest of young bears, where I had not been long, when I heard a strange tapping, unmistakable signs of the return of the she-bear. She ascended the tree, and was descending the hollow. With the rapidity of lightning, I seized her tail and plunged my hunting knife into her haunches; upon which she started upwards, dragging me with her; and she went on one side of the tree and I escaped by the other."

"Now, really, that's very odd," said the friend, "for it's the first time in my life I ever heard of a bear with a tail."

"Yes," replied the traveller, "and it was the only time I ever met with one, and that's very odd."

Swimming under the Ice.—Muskrats have a curious method of traveling long distances under the ice. In their winter excursions to their feeding grounds, which are frequently at great distances from their abodes they take in breath at starting, and remain under water as long as they can. They then rise up to the ice, and breathe out the air in their lungs, which remains in bubbles against the lower surface of the ice. They wait till the air recovers oxygen from the water and ice, and then take it again, and go on till the operation has to be repeated. In this way they can travel almost any distances, and live any length of time under the ice. The hunter sometimes takes advantage of this habit of the muskrat in the following manner: When the marshes and ponds where the muskrats abound at first frozen over and the ice is thin and clear, on striking into their houses with his hatchet for the purpose of setting his traps, he frequently sees a whole family plunge into the water and swim away under the ice. Following one of them for some distance, he sees him come up to renew his breath in the manner above described. After the animal has breathed against the ice, and before he has time to take his bubble in again, the hunter strikes with his hatchet directly over him, and drives him away from his breath. In this case he drowns in swimming a few rods, and the hunter, cutting a hole in the ice, takes him out. Mink, otter and beaver travel under the ice in the same way; and hunters have frequently told me of taking the otter in the manner described, when these animals visit the houses of the muskrat for prey.

In a cave at Rock Island, Ill., the statue of an Indian maiden has been discovered. It has a solid copper pedestal seven feet high, and obelisk of solid brass. Other Indian curiosities have been lately discovered in the same vicinity.

SOLDIERS' HEIRS, ATTENTION!

The act of Congress approved March 2, 1867, gives to Heirs of Soldiers who died prisoners of war, for the time the soldier was so held a prisoner, at the rate of twenty-five cents per day, to be paid in the following order: 1st. To the widow, if unmarried; 2d. To the children; 3d. To the parents, to both jointly if they are living, if either is dead, to the survivor; 4th. To the brothers and sisters.

COMMUTATION FOR RATIONS,

The act of February 28, 1867, provides for the refunding of the $300 Commutation Money, where the same person was again drafted, and was required to enter the service or furnish a substitute.

DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.

The act of March 2, 1867, also makes provisions for the payment of the

$100 ADDITIONAL BOUNTY

to such soldiers as have accidentally lost their discharges

All persons having any claims under any of the above mentioned Acts, or any other kind of claim against the United States or State Governments, can have them promptly collected, by addressing the undersigned. Information and advice cheerfully given to soldiers or their friends, free of charge.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicines. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgements we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and to have other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

McGUIRE'S

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER

FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH, BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries.—No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

McGUIRE'S

Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion

For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and perfuming the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country and is warranted free from all poisonous substances. This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and empress Carlotta of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing.—When thus used it at once relieves headache.

McGUIRE'S

WILD FLOWERS FOR THE TEETH.

All those who are in favor of white teeth and a pleasant and perfumed breath should at once use McGuire's Wild Flowers for the Teeth. All these preparations are put up in the most elegant and ornamental manner. We make no exception in saying that they are an ornament to a lady's toilet table, and none complete without them.

Warrantee satisfactory or money refunded. Dealers will bear this in mind. Sold by all respectable Druggists in the United States and Canadas. Address orders to
